Richmonders Unnerved at Sight of Big New York Americans.

DOYLE PROVES TOO FAST

Visitors Pile Up Sixteen Runs, But Locals Never Had a Chance.

Completely unnerved at the sight of makers yesterday afternoon suffered defeat in a game that was as lacking The big leaguers piled up a score of six teen runs, while the Richmonders once or twice landed on the second bag The Richmonders had a bad slump, for are really capable of far better ball-playing than they exhibited in vesterday's contest. They could get counted for anything except for an outburst of applause from the bleachers. em, and the support he received from them, and the support he received from the rest of the team was almost per-fect. Six out of the nine men brought here by the New lorkers are pitchers; two are catchers and the other an out-fielder. All of them are handy with the bat, and they pounded Muthall and Derby with merciless insistence.

Poor Work.

Mulhall allowed eight hits, and Der-Mulhall allowed eight hits, and Der-by fell only one short in the number gained from him, making fifteen hits in all. But neither of them, however, exerted himself to his full strength, as both are still suffering from sore arms. Derby could never let himself out, and the big batsmen of the op-posing team found his balls an easy mark. was simply a case of nervousness

Dull and Uninteresting.

Except for these incidents, and a home run, the game was uninteresting and dull enough. Richmond played raggedly all through, and the Yankees and dull enough. Richmond played raggedly all through, and the Yankees simply walked away with the game. The Lawmakers will probably have gotten over their nervousness by this afternoon, and Manager Shaffer is expecting them to give a better account of themselves.

The Yankees made their first tally in the first inning. With one man down, Johnson singled, stole second and third; Thomas was walked, and McGuire's single out to left-field, combined with Heffron's fumbling of the ball, scored Johnson and Thomas. The next two men went out. In the fourth inning the Americans scored four runs. Riggs, Johnson and Thomas all singled in succession, and Riggs scored. Johnson came in on McGuire's out to centre-field, Kirkhariek threw the ball away, and Vetter dropped it when it was returned to him, and Thomas and Clarkson scored. Two more runs were made in the fourth inning. Riggs singled. Johnson went out at first, and Thomas hit out a three-bagger, scoring Riggs. Clarkson singled and scored Thomas. Five more runs came in in the seventh inning. Clarkson singled; Keefe was walked; the next two men went out on files, and Hughes's single brought in the first two men. #### PITCHERS' BATTLE. Carolina and University of Carolina and University of Georgia Play Tie Game.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., April 5.—The game this evening between the Universities of Georgia and Carolina was called at the end of the seventh inning on account of a rain-storm, neither side having scored. The game was mainly a battle between the pitchers, in which Captala Thompson, for Carolina, clearly outpitched Georgia's twirler, Poley. The only exciting time of the game was in the third Inning, when Whitaker, of Carolina, got on third-base, with no one out, but his effort was unavailing, as the next three men were put out in rapid succession.

No Georgia man was able to reach second base, and but few reached first. Captain Thompson's pitching was so superb that for several innings he portioned out just three balls to a man. The line-up was:

M'GUIRE'S PITCHING GREAT

Richmond Man Twirled With His Old-Time

[Special to The Times-Fispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 5.—
Virginia tried out a freshman pitcher today against the Hermitage Club, and although he allowed but a few hits, ten innings were required to defeat the visitors. On the firing line for the Richmonders was Murray McGuire, perhaps, the greatest twirler who ever represented the University of Virginia on the diamond. As in his college days, he exhibited sphendid headwork throughout the contest, keeping his hits well scattered.
The Hermitagic Club took the lead at the start, and not until the fifth inning could Virginia tig the score. In the seventh the visitors again jumped into the lead, Cardoza hit a pop fly back of first, and

CHEVY CHASE EVENT TO-DAY

All the Smart Set Will Turn Out to See Gentlemen Jocks Perform.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5 .- Sport fair. The six and a half furlong handicap, for four-year-olds, won by Bowlday. In the race for two-year-olds at four and a half furlongs, Ben Cole, four and a half furlongs, Ben Cole, trained by Billy Garth, got second money, and caused the winner Jubilee to put up a hard fight.

The attendance was only fair to-day, but there will be a big crowd out to-morrow to see the Chevy Chase handicap for gentlemen riders. Several cracks belonging to clubs in Washington and in nearby Virginia towns will have mounts, and the clubhouse will be crowded with femininity and others to see the pink couts ride.

Richard Wallach's Angele, Clarence Moore's Kitty Bellairs, and Courtland Smith's Navajo and Pete Daly, are the most talked of of the various entries. The Southern sieeplechase next Thursday is another non-professional event which will attract a big crowd. The amalcur cup, also to be run next Thursday, has received eight entries, as follows. Jack McKeen, Quadrille, Turbulence, The Cricket, Yellowback, Nblick, Bulwark and Snow King.

Niblick, Bulwark and Snow King.

Stirring Finish.

A more stirring finish than that in the fourth event at Benning to-day rarely is witnessed on a race-course. Radtke, on the second choice, Jubilee, after getting away in the lead, was unable to maintain the position, the favorite, Ben Cole, evening up with him on the turn. Together, the two horses swept through the stretch, with the favorite a trifle in the lead. Just before the wire was reached, Radtke, by a supreme effort, get Jubilee's nose in front, barely winning. Interest centered about the first, a handleap at six and a half furlongs, and the last,
